REGIONAL STATISTICS COMMITTEE

RSC Resolution No. IV-A-02-2021

“ENJOINING GOVERNMENT AGENCIES AND INSTRUMENTALITIES, AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS TO COMPILE PROVINCIAL INDICATORS ANNUALLY STARTING 2018 AS A PRELUDE TO THE ESTIMATION OF GROSS PROVINCIAL DOMESTIC PRODUCT IN 2022”

WHEREAS, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) is mandated to develop and maintain the Philippine System of National Accounts which includes the national and regional accounts such as the gross regional domestic product (GRDP) and the gross regional domestic expenditure, and other relevant macroeconomic indicators;

WHEREAS, the demand for the gross provincial domestic product (GPDP), the GRDP provincial counterpart, which measures the province's economic performance has been increasing to enhance local level planning and evidence-based decision making in the province;

WHEREAS, part of the work program of the Macroeconomic Accounts Service of PSA is the institutionalization of the compilation of provincial product accounts, in which CALABARZON is one of the pilot regions in 2022;

WHEREAS, the generation of the GPDP estimates would depend a lot on the availability of additional resources and provincial indicators from the government agencies, local government units, and private sectors;

NOW THEREFORE, on motion duly seconded, BE IT RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, to enjoin government agencies and instrumentalities, and local government units to compile provincial indicators annually starting 2018 as a prelude to the estimation of gross provincial domestic product in 2022;

RESOLVED FURTHER, to request the Provincial Planning and Development Offices to compile provincial indicators for the GPDP from the various data sources for submission to the PSA Provincial Statistics Offices.

SIGNED, this 21st day of January 2021 via video conference.
